DENNIS REHBERG:

Wasting hundreds of millions of our tax dollars on pork barrel projects.

Congressman Dennis Rehberg has requested more earmarks than any other House member.[1]

He requested at least $100 million in earmarks in FY 2010 alone.[2] It's no surprise that Congressman Rehberg helped a lobbyist, who was later convicted of bribing public officials and was associated with Jack Abramoff, secure millions of dollars in earmarks.[3]
REHBERG WAS VOTED

"BIGGEST PIG" IN CONGRESS

DAN COX: A champion for fiscal responsibility

Dan Cox knows that Montana needs less government spending – not more. He is a true conservative who believes that Montanans, not the government, should be trusted to live their lives. He opposed the stimulus, is against any big bank bailout, and will fight all forms of unconstitutional spending. Dan Cox will protect our freedom and stop big government overspending.
Say no to wasteful spending.

Say yes to economic freedom.
